

In Recovery and want to help others?

Recovery Is Possible...

For more information about the Peer Recovery Coach program and how you can receive FREE Certified Training, please contact Nancy Ward with Clinton County Probation Office at:

Are you currently stable in your recovery and want to help others with peer support?

- Becoming a certified Peer Recovery Coach may be a position to you. You can coach those in recovery and give back to your community.
- Peer Recovery Coach is a 5-day training where you can learn how to serve others while in your own recovery.
- Clinton County is looking to train Peer Recovery Coaches for FREE. This training could lead to future employment.
- This program is about the recoveree's choice of their own recovery path. A coach is there to help support them and give them resources to maintain a healthy recovery lifestyle.
